OLD EDINBURGH
The FLODDEN WALL, VENNEL.

L 7510

Raphael Tuck & Sons' "OILETTE" [Regd.] Postcard 7640.
ART PUBLISHERS TO HER MAJESTIES THE KING & QUEEN.
OLD EDINBURGH. SER. II.
Processed by Bamforth.

TUCK'S POST CARD

CARTE POSTALE. POSTKARTE.

By Appointment.

The Flodden Wall. This fragment of the ancient walls of Edinburgh is found in the Vennel, a lane which runs from Lauriston to the Grassmarket. It preserves the ramparts and one of the bastions and is a portion of the outer wall which the citizens hastily erected after the defeat of the Scottish Army on the disastrous field of Flodden in 1513.

(For Address Only.)

L 7510 9